A. F. OF L. IS TARGET FOR BIG ASSAULT

Business Interests Launch Broadside on Policies of Unions

"CLASS WAR" CHARGED

Employers Spend Fortune in Open Shop Fight Throughout U. S.

By LAURENCE TODD
Federated Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON— Discovery that a class war is under way in the United States, and that organized labor is getting the worst of it—thus far—has just been made by the officials of the American Federation of Labor. What is more alarming, the Federation itself is named by the employers as the embodiment of the working class forces which must be annihilated.

Frank Morrison, secretary of the A. F. of L., had on his desk on Thursday a half-page advertisement carried on the back page of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, signed by the Industrial Relations Committee of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, headed—"Laws, Courts and Constitution or American Federation of Labor?"

In this advertisement the business interests of Philadelphia, under perfect control by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the U. S. Steel Corporation interests, declare:

"The American Federation of Labor proposes to become a special privileged class—setting up a labor dictatorship.

"The Federation suggests nullifying the Constitution of the United States; exempting themselves from the laws of the land; freeing themselves of any moral or other obligation to their fellow citizens.

"Do you, as a citizen of the U. S., want a condition such as this or do you want the equality of freedom as provided by the Constitution of the U. S.? The issue is exceedingly clear and definite."

In support of this challenge, the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce quotes from the declarations of the emergency conference held by the A. F. of L. here on Feb. 24, and dealing with the right to strike, to bargain collectively, freedom of unions from punishment in damages, and finally the issue of resistance to federal injunctions in labor disputes.

The Philadelphia business organization denounces the proposal of the A. F. of L. to defy court injunctions as one which "would make the Constitution a 'scrap of paper'".

On Secretary Morrison's desk at the same moment was a letter informing him that the National Association of Manufacturers had offered to the debating team of one of the largest universities in the East the services of its general counsel or another expert, for the preparation of the bosses' side of an "open-shop" debate. As Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Georgetown and other universities are now debating the issue of the union or "open" shop in industry, it is possible that the N. A. M. of the manufacturers to send a $10,000 lawyer with his assistant to help these college boys prepare an argument against the labor movement has not been restricted to one university.

"This is only a fragment of their plan," said Morrison. "They are spending huge sums of money in every kind of propaganda against labor, both in the colleges and schools and in the public forums everywhere, in addition to their heavy investments in advertising such as is in Philadelphia.

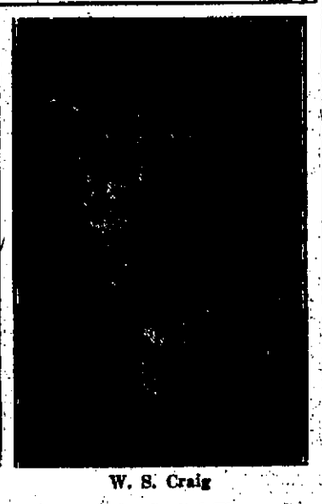

"We are meeting them with less expenditure, because we have not the money. We are holding mass meetings in the industrial cities, and we are beginning to organize our own printed propaganda in self-defense."

The National Association of Manufacturers claims to represent corporations employing 8,000,000 persons and having an investment of $15,000,000,000. From these investors it is gathering its fund to put anti-labor speakers before every civic and religious organization in the country, according to information forwarded to the A. F. of L. And this time its objective is not the destruction of the "reds," but of the whole trade union movement

W. L. Miller Joins Staff of The Capital Times; Will Open Agency Here

W. L. Miller

W. S. Craig

W. L. MILLER, formerly advertising manager of the State Journal and more recently advertising manager of the Tulsa, Oklahoma Tribune, has been obtained as director of advertising of The Capital Times. Mr. Miller returned to the city Saturday evening, together with W. S. Craig, with whom he will operate the firm of Miller and Craig, advertising counselors.

Mr. Miller begins his new duties with The Capital Times tomorrow.

Mr. Miller has had wide experience in advertising, and is very well known in Madison, a member of the Kiwanis Club and was one of the instigators and organizers of the Advertising Club of Madison.

Kenneth K. Reese, the present advertising manager of The Capital Times will continue to head the advertising department and Mr. Miller's duties will be more of a directorial and advisory nature, having direct charge of the promotion and merchandising work, and will act as advertising counsel to Madison merchants.

This deviation from the general policy of newspaper advertising work is in accordance with the general policy of better and greater service to The Capital Times advertisers. The Capital Times wishes to give its patrons more than "white space." It wants its advertisers to have the benefit of advertising counsel, in order that greater returns be received from every advertising inch. With Mr. Miller's wide experience in advertising and his familiarity with the wants and needs of Madison merchants, The Capital Times believes it is now able to offer a most complete advertising service.

Mr. Craig, who is associating himself with Mr. Miller, is also an advertising man of wide experience, having been connected with the advertising departments of Sears-Roebuck and Co., Montgomery Ward and Co. and Butler Bros. in Chicago for many years, in addition to several years of advertising agency training in several cities. Mr. Craig most recently has been connected with Mr. Miller on the Tulsa Okla. Tribune, having had charge of the copy writing and merchandising work on that paper. Offices for the firm have been arranged for at 19 W. Main st. The firm will do a general advertising business, offering counsel in preparation of newspaper and direct by mail advertising copy, merchandising surveys, etc.

TITTEMORE TO BE GIVEN JOB

Washington Report Says He May be Named on Shipping Board

WASHINGTON, D. C.—With the senate scheduled to adjourn on Tuesday, it was thought Monday night that President Harding might send to the senate Tuesday morning the names of at least part of the members of the shipping board. J. N. Tittemore, of Omro, Wis., was figuring in all talk of membership of the board Monday night. Tittemore has the backing of Senator Lenroot, it was said.

Mendota Will Be Free of Ice Today

Indications were Tuesday morning that the little ice remaining on Lake Mendota would disappear before the close of the day. According to W. P. Bernard of the Bernard boat livery, only a small strip of ice, about one inch thick, remained on the west shore, between Second and Fox's point. More ice was noticeable on Lake Monona but it was quite thin. The latest opening of Mendota on record was May 4, 1857. The earliest the lake ever opened was March 14, 1859.

Mt. Horeb Widower, 68, and Widow, 62, to Wed

Undaunted by age and previous marriage, Charles Danielson of Mt. Horeb, aged 68, and Mrs. Susana Melland of the same place, aged 62, appeared before County Clerk Fjelstad Monday afternoon for a marriage license. The wedding is to take place March 26 at Mt. Horeb, Rev. R. R. Anderson performing the ceremony. Danielson's first wife died Oct. 29, 1916, and Mrs. Melland's first husband died Nov. 14, 1918.

TRY TO HOLD UP CONDUCTOR

Attempt Fails; Home of Daley Entered by Thieves

An attempt to hold up Christ Anderson, street car conductor, was made Tuesday morning about 5 o'clock by two men on Rusk st. They walked up to Anderson and tried to draw him from the sidewalk. Perceiving their intention, Anderson made a dash and managed to run around a street corner. The men did not attempt pursuit. Anderson lives at 2118 Rusk st.

Two gold watches, three gold rings, $15 in cash and a .38 calibre revolver were stolen from the home of Mrs. Daley, 448 W. Main st. Monday, while she was away from home. She discovered that the padlock which fastened the door of the flat had been broken. The theft is believed to have been committed by boys, and detectives have been put on the trail of the thieves. The Daley flat is over a shoemakers' shop.

Col. Joachim is Injured in Fall

Word has been received here that Col. George H. Joachim well known in Madison was injured in Richland Center. Col Joachim is now engaged in the hotel business at Richland Center. He was doing some repair work on a ladder when he fell. One rib was broken but his condition is not reported as serious.

Fire in Basement Causes $200 Damage

A basement fire, caused by an overheated furnace, occurred Tuesday morning at 5:10 at the residence of R. Zineske, 310 N. Orchard st. Fire companies 2 and 4 answered the call. The damage will amount to about $200.

HAMON BEAT ME; I FIRED, HER DEFENSE

Declares Oil King Attacked Her in Room at Her Hotel

REACHED FOR KNIFE

Politician Threatened to Kill Her; Was Drunk, is Testimony

(By the Associated Press)

ARDMORE, Okla.—Clara Smith Hamon, charged with the murder of Col. Jake L. Hamon, took the witness stand in her trial here today and told her story of the incidents of Nov. 21, when Col. Hamon was shot.

She spoke dramatically in a cool, low pitched voice hesitating only when she told that the Colonel had cursed her. She answered a few preliminary questions and then launched into her story of their last day together.

When she reached the point in her story of the actual shooting, she left the witness stand and taking the pistol with which he was shot, in her hand, she illustrated how the shot was fired.

"I didn't go to do it, she said. "The pistol went off when he struck it, or I pulled the trigger or something; I know not what."

After a few preliminary questions in which she said she was 29 years old, knew Col. Hamon was married and that he had educated her so she might work for him, she said:

Had Breakfast Together

"We had breakfast about 11 o'clock," she said. "Mr. Hamon left me. I went back to my room and in the afternoon about 2:30, he came back to the room and we had a very pleasant conversation."

"He lay down on his bed to rest and he only stayed a short time, then he went back to the office. I was busy cleaning up my room, reading newspapers and getting my clothes ready to go away to California for my trip, and I decided that I would like to have a little ride, so I got in my car and went for a ride. It was about 7 p. m. when I came back. When I drove up in front of the hotel Mr. Hamon was sitting in front of the hotel in a chair.

"He immediately grabbed me as I passed and shoved me down in a chair and said he wanted to talk to me, and used profane language.

"I told him 'Please don't curse here, don't make a scene, if you want to curse and be mean to me, let's go to the room.' He continued to curse me and I noticed that the lights in the car were on and I said wait a minute, I want to turn the lights of my car off. He turned me loose and I walked to the car and switched off the lights. I passed by him and turned to go through the door, he again grabbed me by the arm and jerked me down on a chair and again cursed.

Was Afraid of Him

"I said 'Go to the room Mr. Ham-

W. O. Webster Is Given Place On Wisconsin Board

Brayton O. Webster

TAX BODY HAS NARROW SHAVE

Appropriation Bill is Carried in Assembly by One Vote

VOTE ON GIVING TAX COMMISSION EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION

For Tax Commission Emergency Appropriation: Anderson, Anderson, Best, Beversdorf, Bullis, Cole, Cushman, Engel, J. R. Farr, Fifield, Fowler, French, Gamper, Hasley, Hess, Hineman, Jensen, H. F. Johnson, Jones, Jordan, Kiesner, Larson, Lucas, Matheson, Oakes, Peterson, Pierron, Polawokski, Scribner, Smith, Stolowski, Sullivan, Summerville, Tuffley, Vollmer, Weittenhiller, Young—37.

Against: Bartingale, Becker, Biglow, Burden, Caldwell, Catlin, Dahl, Downs, Goodman, Grandine, Grimstad, C. E. Hanson, Higgins, Holly, E. H. Johnson, J. E. Johnson, Killian, Lamb, W. F. Miller, Nelson, Oliver, Olson, Ott, Parker, Peltier, Perry, Ploetz, Ruffing, Sachtjen, Schafer, Schwalbach, Verkuilen, Weix, Zelmer, Zitlow.—35.

Absent and not voting: Ankerson, Clark, Conway, Cook, Dettinger, Edwards, M. Farr, Freehoff, Grunwald, F. H. Hanson, J. C. Hanson, Ingalls, A. C. Johnson, Kaufman, Kenyon, Koenig, Lorfeld, Mahon, Mark, McDowell, Meising, A. M. Miller Moul, Pierson, Prescott, Roseland, Rynders, Stokes.—28.

The state tax commission was given a close call in the house on Tuesday. An emergency appropriation of $74,275 to carry on the work of the commission until July 1, was up. There were no speeches but some of the members sat breathless when they saw the roll call.

It stood 87 in favor of the passage of the bill and 35 against.

A change of one vote making it a tie would have killed the bill under the parliamentary rule.

Town officers will be elected annually in Wisconsin again if the senate concurs in the Gamper bill, which was advanced in the assembly Tuesday morning after an hour of verbal barrage. Several years ago a law was passed giving the county board the right to order the election of supervisors of the board on a three-year term, instead of a one-year term. Assemblyman Gamper claims that this law has not worked out satisfactorily.

Supervisors in cities will continue to be elected on the three-year term. The bill was advanced, 50 to 10.

The assembly will again have a vote on the Ingalls resolution to delay all tax legislation pending a legislative investigation. A motion for the reconsideration of the vote Friday was entered Tuesday and the question will come up in the house for consideration Thursday.

The senate Tuesday engrossed and then passed the revisor's bill putting all cities with the exception of Milwaukee under the general charter law.

When Governor Blaine's veto of the Eau Claire municipal court bill was received in the senate it brought up for the first time this session the question of the validity of the veto. Under the law the governor had six days to submit his veto. It was apparent that nine days had been used. The veto and bill were referred to the judiciary committee.

Sen. Titus' bill to provide for the state reforestration work was advanced to engrossment without opposition.

Another bill by Titus changing the open season for deer, Nov. 15 to 22, was engrossed. Sen. Titus explained that the reason for the change was to make the Wisconsin season coincide with that of Michigan.

WEBSTER ON CONSERVATION COMMISSION

Named by Blaine to Succeed James Nevin of Madison

THREE OTHERS NAMED

Griswold, Schoenfeldt and Koenigs on State Fair Advisory Board

Brayton O. Webster, Delafield fish hatchery, one of the best known men in the country in fish culture, was nominated on Tuesday by Gov. John J. Blaine to the state conservation commission to take the place of James Nevin, Madison. The nomination was sent to the state senate for confirmation, together with three other appointments to the state fair board. All appointments went over under the rules. Mr. Webster's appointment is for six years at a $3,500 annual salary.

The three nominations on the state fair advisory board were: H. D. Griswold, West Salem; Charles Schoenfeldt, Beaver Dam, and Mathew Koenigs, Fond du Lac.

Mr. Webster is 47 years old, and has been engaged in fish culture for 22 years. His first work was done under Frank N. Clark, Northville, Mich., for the federal bureau of fisheries, where he served seven years. He resigned to accept a position with the Pennsylvania fish commission, where he served three years. Twelve years ago he came to Wisconsin and was placed in charge of the hatchery at Wild Rose.

For the past 10 years he has been located at Delafield in charge of the bass and pike hatchery at that place. Mr. Nevin, whose place Mr. Webster takes, is one of the oldest employes in the state in point of service. He became connected with the fish hatchery work under the administration of Gov. J. M. Rusk.

"Mr. Webster has made a study of the work of handling of the various kinds of fish and eggs and is familiar with the work in all of its branches," said Mr. Nevin in a recent article in the Wisconsin Conservationist, in speaking of the service of Mr. Webster.

Appointments to the state fair advisory board are made according to congressional districts. These appointments carry a per diem and traveling expenses. The term of office in each case is for four years and senate confirmation is required. The naming of Mr. Griswold is a re-appointment. Charles Schoenfeldt, Beaver Dam, is a breeder of Shorthorn cattle and pure bred hogs. He takes the place of C. W. Harvey, Beaver Dam, on the board. Mathew Koenigs, Fond du Lac, takes the place of G. N. Mihills, Fond du Lac, on the fair advisory board.

Six Pardons Are Denied by Blaine

Six pardon applications were denied by Governor Blaine, Tuesday afternoon. The applications denied are: Susie Wojdek, Milwaukee, convicted of murdering her son, six years old, and sentenced for life imprisonment May 29, 1915. Sam Boniascos, Milwaukee, convicted of burglary. Choice Jackson, Milwaukee, convicted of second degree murder. Ernest Schugeld, Milwaukee, sentenced to 16 years at Waupun for rape, Nov. 1, 1916. Cut to 10 years by Gov. Philipp Feb. 14, 1920. Joseph Reith, Milwaukee, sentenced to three years for burglary. Paul Jones, Shawano, convicted of burglary. Sentenced to five years.

Tool and Stamping Works Puts Up Shop

The Madison Tool & Stamping Works, and not the Protecto Manufacturing & Sales Co., as was reported yesterday, is building a factory on Helena st. The officers of this concern are: President, H. A. Haas; vice president, William Gregerson; secretary, C. E. McCampbell; treasurer and general manager, L. Maisel.

Sam Pierce May Get Money Which Slave Deposited

"Sam" Pierce

Sam Pierce,—everybody who has ever ridden on a parlor car between Madison and Milwaukee knows Sam,—is endeavoring to recover funds that were deposited in a bank in Washington by his father over 50 years ago.

Sam's father was a slave. After he had emerged from bondage he lived in Washington, D. C. Being a thrifty person he soon deposited money in the Freedmen's bank in Washington. Later the bank failed. Sam's mother had no knowledge of the money in the bank and it was not until many years later that the bank book was found.

The bank has paid liberally to its creditors.

Sam has sent the bankbook to Senator La Follette and the senator has written Sam that he will use his efforts to get the money for Mr. Pierce.

BIG CROWD TO HEAR SENATOR

La Follette to Speak in the Auditorium at Milwaukee

United States Senator Robert M. La Follette will speak in the Auditorium at Milwaukee next Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

The meeting will be under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, but it will be open to the general public.

It is understood that the senator will discuss the Irish problem, and it is said that the senator has compiled one of the greatest speeches of his career on this subject.

The senator will be introduced at the meeting by Gov. John J. Blaine and it is expected that a large delegation from Madison will attend the meeting.

The senator will be accompanied to Milwaukee by his son, Robert M., Jr.

Father Agrees to Support Children

John Elmer, charged with neglect of this three children, has pleaded not guilty in superior court. He has agreed to pay $10 a week commencing March 14, to May 2, and $15 a week after May 2, until all back payments are made.

WEATHER

The highest temperature during the past 24 hours was 39 at 9 a. m. and the lowest was 33 at 9 p. m. Precipitation was .09 and the sun sets at 6:04.

Strong winds, snow and thunder accompany and are of low barometer that is crossing the Red River Valley. This disturbance is preceded by southerly winds and much warmer in the mid west, but is followed by northwest winds and colder on the Canadian plains.

BADGER RATE SUIT BRIEF FILED TODAY

Counsel for 42 States Says 20 Percent Raise Exorbitant

OLBRICH TO CLOSE

Wisconsin Counsel to Make Final Argument to Supreme Court

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—An increase of 6.4 per cent in passenger rates on western roads instead of the 20 per cent allowed by the interstate commerce commission would have been sufficient to return the amount set by the carriers themselves as due them under the terms of the transportation act, the supreme court is told in a supplemental brief filed today by John E. Benton, counsel for the 42 states which are cooperating with Wisconsin in the so-called Wisconsin rate cases.

Mr. Benton cited figures covering earnings of the carriers to illustrate his point and declared upon the basis of these "no valid order could have been made displacing intra-state rates fixed by the laws of Wisconsin."

Alfred P. Thom, counsel for the National Ass'n. of Railway executives, resumed his argument in behalf of the carriers when the court reconvened today. The closing argument was to be made by M. E. Olbrich, special counsel for Wisconsin.

Reject Wage Cut.

NEW YORK—All skilled workers employed by the New York Central railway with the exception of members of the "Big Four" brotherhoods, today announced that they as well as unskilled laborers, would reject wage cuts proposed by the company. This announcement was made by the general chairman of the United Brotherhood of maintenance of way employes and railroad shop laborers. Altogether nearly 70,000, men now have made known their opposition to the plan.

NAME NAGLER TO NEW PLACE

Appointed as the Chief Deputy in Prohibition Department

Louis B. Nagler has been named as chief deputy in the department of the prohibition commissioner. Mr. Nagler has been named by W. Stanley Smith, prohibitionist commissioner.

He has already entered upon his new duties. Mr. Nagler was formerly assistant secretary of state.

Mr. Nagler received the following leter from his attorney, Gilbert E. Roe, New York, today:

"I have just received a letter from Assistant Attorney General Stewart saying that the indictment against you had been dismissed on the 24th of February last. This amounts to a complete vindication as it is the solemn admission of the office of the Attorney General that no cause of action ever existed against you."

Charley White Asks Blaine to Kill Decision

Charlie White, lightweight boxing contender, has appealed to the governor to reverse the decision of the Boxing commission which barred him from contests for six months at Kenosha Jan. 14th.

White claims that in this bout with Sailor Freedman he had but 45 seconds to go to complete the bout when the bout was stopped by the commission and he was subsequently disbarred.

White was formed that the governor had no power over the Athletic commission.

It is understood that White has entered a complaint for $5,000 damages in the Federal court for the Eastern district. The action of the Wisconsin commission resulted in the same action in the eleven states falling under the national commission.

UPRISING IS FEARED BY DUBLIN TODAY

Disorder May Follow Hanging of Six Sinn Feiners

SEE FREE IRELAND

Cork Mayor, in Speech at Cleveland, Hopeful for Future

(By the Associated Press)

DUBLIN—Five police recruits were wounded by the explosion of a bomb here last night while searching a house. Three civilians were killed and several were wounded by the explosion.

All troops in Dublin were confined to their barracks last night, officers fearing there might be disorders as a result of the execution of the six men in Mount Joy prison early in the day. The Dublin corporation which adjourned last week owing to the murder of several men in Limerick, readjourned yesterday because of the executions.

Sees Free Ireland.

CINCINNATI—Donal O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, speaking last night said the time is almost at hand when Ireland will be free. "Nothing will satisfy us but complete independence of Erin," he said. "We are more than willing to give to England guarantees that Ireland will not jeopardize the safety of the British empire after it becomes a republic. We would be satisfied if unionists in Ulster remained outside the Irish republic, as the Irish republican government would be willing to pledge itself that there would be no interference with Ulster."

TICKET SALE FOR MILITARY BALL TO COMMENCE TODAY

Pasteboards Will Sell At $3.50 Spectator Seats at $.75

Ticket sale for the Military ball opens this morning, and reservations should be made immediately by all fraternities and other organizations desiring tickets. As far as possible the tickets will be disposed of this year through such groups, and all men who wish to attend are advised to join or form a club of some sort and make their reservations in a body.

The former service men, in honor of whom the ball is being given, are asked to apply for tickets through one of the many campus clubs composed of ex-service men. These clubs have all agreed to cooperate with the cadets in taking care of these men. All orders for group reservations must be mailed to Larry Warner, chairman of ticket committee, at 625 N. Henry. The price of the tickets is $3.50.

Arab Situation is in Serious Tangle

The Arab situatin is one of the worst tangles left by the war, D. C. Hogarth of Oxford, stated in an illustrated lecture on The Arabs in the Present Political Situation, Saturday afternoon in Bascom hall. Mr. Hogarth described the struggle of the Turks against the natives, led by Feisal in their effort to drive out the Turks in Arabia. It was necessary, he stated for England, to take up the cause of Arab nationality because of the situation in respect to Germany and Turkey. England has not and cannot gain anything financially through the possession of Arabia but has sent large sums of money to the aid of the country.

AKLEY AND ARSOVSKY WILL OPEN AGAINST ILLINOIS AND MICHIGAN

RALPH AKLEY '23

Akley who will open the debate for Wisconsin against Illinois, Friday night, on the question of recognition for Soviet Russia represented Hesperia in this year's joint debate. He was the freshman declamation last year with an original speech. He is the youngest speaker on either team and one of the two sophomores representing the university in inter-collegiate debating.

Arsovsky made the brilliant opening speech for Philomathia in the joint debate and will open for Wisconsin against Michigan Friday night. He is a member of Artus, honorary economics fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa, an officer in Philomathia, and president of the Forensic board. He won sophomore honors and closed one of Philomathia's semi-public debates.

TO PRESIDE AT DEBATE FRIDAY

Audience Will Question Speakers at Close of Contest

Prof. C. H. Woolbert, coach of the Illini negative team, will act as chairman of the season's first inter-collegiate debate between Wisconsin and Illinois at Music hall at 7:30 Friday night on the question, "Resolved, That the United States should at once formally recognize the Soviet Government of Russia."

Prof. Woolbert, who heads the department of speech at Illinois, conducted a course in public speaking at summer session last year and will also be here this summer. He was chosen to preside because it was thought best to have an experienced teacher of speech in charge of a debate at which the audience is to be permitted to question the debaters at the close of the contest.

The tremendous wave of popular interest which the debate subject brought about is becoming keener and more marked as the time for the contest approaches. It is expected that many Madisonians will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing the pros and cons of recognition of soviet Russia advanced, and the Forensic board, in charge of arrangements, warns students, who expect to attend to be on hand early.

Negative at Michigan

While the Wisconsin affirmative is arguing for recognition at home, the negative team will be telling students and town people at Ann Arbor why the United States should not recognize soviet Russia. Prof. A. T. Weaver, who will accompany the negative team will preside at the Michigan debate.

Both contests are looked upon as classics in inter-collegiate debate circles in the mid-west because of the great forensic rivalry existing between Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin. In years past the schools have won about an equal share of the debates, and although the contests this year are "no-decision" affairs, this fact will not in the least detract from the keen competition which invariably makes itself manifest.

The debate at Michigan is formal as far as the contestants are concerned, and all speakers appear in evening clothes. An attempt was made to make debates at Wisconsin formal but has as yet failed to materialize.

In order to permit other engagements for the evening the home contest will start promptly at 7:30.

PRESS CLUB PLANS NOVELTY PROGRAM

A novelty program will be given at the regular meeting of Press club to be held at 7:30 tonight in Lathrop hall. A discussion of journalistic subjects conducted by the members themselves is the plan for the evening. Talks will be limited to five minutes, as there is important business to come up.

Rodney Welch '22 will talk on "The Publicity Nuisance," Raymond Bartels '22 on "How a Desk Man Keeps People Out of Trouble," and Willet Kempton '22 on "Journalism Versus the Movies as a Medium for Expressing Thought." John Baker '22 will talk on the journalism exposition committee.

The members are to assemble in the cafeteria line at 6:30.

Clara Hamon Prepared to Defend Herself On Murder Charge

on, if you want to abuse me, there are some men standing there, you must not talk that way here in public.' So he got up and I went up stairs to my room. I was afraid of Mr. Hamon. I saw a look on his face that I had never seen before. He was drunker than I had ever seen him in all the years I had know him. He was drunk and crazy.

"When I got to my room the doors were locked between our rooms. The bathroom door was locked. I rang for Bill, the porter. I thought I had better eat something. Bill came and knocked on the door, he came in with ice water and Mr. Hamon slipped in with him. I had to unlock the door for Bill. I was afraid of Mr. Hamon. The minute Bill went out Mr. Hamon said with an epithet: 'Where have you been?' and grabbed me at the same time and choked me and choked me until I was blind and I couldn't seem to think.

"He choked me and hit me and somehow he threw me over on the bed and after he got me on the bed he beat and slapped me. He said: 'I will cut your throat' and he reached for his knife and the knife had fallen out of his pocket in the afternoon.

"He said 'You have been riding with somebody haven't you?' and I said 'No, you know I wasn't.' He saw a knife over on the dresser he had given me a long time ago. It was very sharp. He reached for that knife and said 'I would just as soon slit your throat as draw on this cigar.' Anyway when he reached for that knife I knew the time had come. I unconsciously or consciously, or somehow reached back and in my purse on the window sill, got my little gun. I asked him to stand back and let me pass."

"Well, what did you do with the gun, with the pistol, when you got hold of it, what did you do with it?" McLean asked.

"What did I do with it? What would anyone do with it? If they thought their life was in danger?" the young woman replied.

"Never mind that what did you do with it?" her counsel asked.

"I held it on him" she went on.

"He did back away sort of behind a chair and put his hand on the back of the chair, he did not raise his hands. I didn't ask him to, I passed him. I wasn't very far from him when I passed between the corner of the bed and Mr. Hamon and the chair to get to the door to get out. When I unlocked the door to go, he turned off the light and raised the chair to strike me and did strike. He struck me with that chair and the gun went off."

Court recessed at noon with the young woman still on the stand.

The first witnesses called for the defense Monday afternoon included Sheriff Garrett, Mrs. Ella Riggins, proprietor of the hotel where Hamon and Clara lived, two nurses at the hospital where Hamon died, and others who testified that Hamon appeared to be intoxicated on the night he was shot. Sheriff Garrett declared Hamon told him he did not want Clara prosecuted for the shooting, that he did it himself accidentally.

One of the nurses described the last meeting between Clara Hamon and Jake Hamon, in the latter's room at the hospital. The nurse said she called Clara Hamon on the telephone and told her to come to the hospital. Hamon, she testified, held out his arms to Clara when she arrived, and drew her to him and kissed her. When Clara left, the nurse said, Hamon asked her to [illegible].

STATE ASKS CUT IN RAIL GRAVEL RATE

Request Lower Figures or Else Withdrawal of Shipments

A demand on the railroads for an immediate and drastic cut in freight rates on highway material and a warning that if it is not forthcoming the state and counties will be compelled in self protection to open roadside pits and quarries and produce their own material near the job, cutting off freight haulage, is contained in a communication sent by the Wisconsin Highway commission to all the railroads operating in Wisconsin. Immediate attention is suggested as the state is holding up a large amount of work pending the decision of the railroads.

The demand of the commission has stirred up railroad circles and caused considerable apprehension among the owners of commercial pits. A few years ago the annual shipment of aggregates from commercial plants ran to 4,000,000 tons a year. If the present rates continue the commission states the haulage this year will not run to one-third of that amount.

The railroads are warned that they confront a continuing cutting off of a large freight business in Wisconsin unless they reduce rates. Once local roadside pits are opened and equipped, roadside production will become an established practice and the effect on the revenues of the railroads in Wisconsin will be felt forever. The high freight rates are not only prohibitive but result in higher prices for gravel, sand and stone due to a reduced output.

"In order to save the situation," writes State Highway Engineer Hirst, who signs the communication," it is absolutely necessary that an immediate and heavy cut be made in the freight rates prevailing on highway materials. The rates must be cut because only in that way can the commercial plants which ship by rail reduce their prices to a basis competitive with locally produced materials in Wisconsin.

"The final stake is whether untold millions of tons of materials for our Wisconsin road program are to be commercially produced and moved by rail, or whether these tons to be largely produced at roadside plants. It is an item worthy of the best consideration of the best minds the railroads possess."

HEROES ALL

Eight Co-eds Join World War Veterans in University Legion Post

"Say, Helen, are you going to the legion meeting tonight?"

"Oh, my dear, I should say I am. Jack X. Doughtee is going to call for me at 7 and Dorothy is going with Howard X. Gob."

These are likely to be some of the whispered conversations you will hear in the "libe" from now on if you listen closely, for eight pretty co-eds (all co-eds are pretty, you know) joined the University post of the American legion last Sunday.

Time was when the buck private hummed "I Don't Want to Get Well," as the white-aproned nurse lingered a minute by the bed and the "jackie" sought excuses to pay unnecessary visits to the desk of a smiling yoemanette.

Now he can call her "comrade," put on his Christmas necktie and "ice-cream" trousers, take her by the arm and make faces at his exlieutenant as he escorts her to the legion meeting.

But the girls are not joining the post to keep the men from getting lonesome. They are already making plans to help with the legion program of sick visitation and entertainment. They are applying for a charter for a woman's auxiliary which will include immediate relatives of service men and are undertaking an active campaign for more members for the post.

The eight who have already joined are: Isabelle Holdahl '22, Rhea Hunt '21, Sophia D. Kellen '22, Viola Knowles '23, Vera Mitum '21, Margaret Shnittger, Helen Sherman '21, Dorothy Wiesler '24.

Helen Sherman has been appointed temporary chairman to arrange for securing a charter for the women's auxiliary.

Jastrow and Milwaukee Spiritualist in Battle

Prof. Joseph Jastrow of the psychology department of the university and Robert Schilling, Milwaukee spiritualist, are engaged in a word battle over the merits of spiritualism.

Mr. Schilling charges that the professor has proved "nothing but that there are mediums who have been guilty of frauds," and the latter, refusing to discuss the question or retract statements he has made against spiritualism.

Why looking your Best is most Economical

It's really most economical to look your best where clothes are concerned.

Garments neglected, out of press, filled with dust and grit, wear out faster.

Dry-cleaned frequently, pressed regularly, the fabric is freed from grinding dirt, the fibres are strengthened and kept in place—you get the best your clothes can give you in service and style.

We believe in the thriftiness of frequent dry-cleaning—and you will too, if you try it.

Say the word, and we will call tomorrow.

ST. OLAF'S CHOIR TO HOLD CONCERT HERE

The St. Olaf Lutheran choir, composed of 50 young men and women from St. Olaf's college, Northfield, Minn., will give a choral concert in the university gymnasium, Thursday evening, April 7 at 8:15, under the auspices of the Union board.

Last spring the St. Olaf's student choir gave concerts in all the large cities of the east, including New York, Brooklyn, Boston, Washington, Baltimore, and Philadelphia. In spite of requests for return engagements from every city, the present tour will not take the organization east of Chicago.

The tour is not for the purpose of making money but to stimulate the growth of sacred music in the Lutheran churches and in communities at large. The choir specializes in singing the great masterpieces of choral music, such as the chorals of Bach, Hadyn, and Handel, instead of the lighter music use by most college clubs.

WOMEN LEARN OF TAX BILLS

League of Progressive Women Favor Anti-Profiteering Measure

Taxation was the subject of discussion at a meeting of the League of Progressive Women in the city library Monday night. The assembly was addressed by members of the legislature who have introduced various tax bills: C. E. Hanson, assemblyman from Pierce county; Senator Herman J. Severson from the 23d district; and T. A. Sullivan, assemblyman from Manitowoc county. Although the league took no action on these bills, it went on record as favoring the anti-profiteering measure introduced by J. C. Hanson.

C. E. Hanson spoke on the bill to repeal the offset tax to personal property, which tax he claimed protects capital, levies a fine on industry, and pays a premium for laziness. In his discussion of the general property tax he said he believed it could practically be cut in half by eliminating the personal property offset, doing away with the secrecy clause, and by raising the rates on incomes from $6,000 on up.

Sen. Severson explained his surtax bill whic haims to tax bank stock, bank dividends, stock dividends, and dividends out of corporations, things exempt under the present income tax law. It provides for a tax on large incomes, a large income being defined as one of $5,000 or more a year. This tax, he held, should belong to the state to take care of state functions even as the income tax takes care of local functions.

Mrs. Glen Turner, secretary of the league, acted as chairman of the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. E. C. Hoebel.

Y. W. SOCIAL SERVICE HAS CONVO TONIGHT

Helen Kasbeer Will Preside at Meet in Lathrop Parlors

A women's social service convocation will be held in Lathrop parlors tonight at 7:30 for all university women, under the auspices of the social service committee of the Y. W. C. A.

The extent and variety of the social service that is being carried on in Madison by campus organizations, and their co-operation with the social service workers of the city will be the subejct for the evening.

Professor Gordon will discuss "The Field for Social Service." The problems of "Little Italy" will be presented by Marjarie Ruff '23. "The Big Sister Movement" will be considered by Miriam Arey '23. Helen Stevenson '21 will talk on "The Girl Reserves." Helen Kasbeer '23, chairman of the social service committee, will preside at the meeting.

AX MAY BE TROPHY FOR STANFORD GAME

To make the Ax a perpetual trophy for the winner of the California-Stanford Big Game is the suggestion that has been made by California Unmack in the current issue of the Alumni Fortnightly.

Judge Brown who, with several others, stole the Ax from Stanford in 1899, when asked for his opinion said: "The idea appeals to me very much. Of course I have not had time to think it over but I can't see why it shouldn't be an excellent idea and add to the historic and sentimental value of the weapon."

The Ax is California's most prized trophy and is kept in a safe-deposit vault in San Francisco. It is brought from its hiding place once a year, at the Spring baseball rally, and Stanford has tried many times to regain it but without success.

Panama and Costa Rica are planning to have a war. They will decide later what they are fighting about.

Is Your Money Idle For A Few Months

Many people in Madison and vicinity have found that they have money which they are planning to use in a few months but which just now is idle—unproductive. MRS. FIELDS AND HER DAUGHTER FULLY RECOVER

Little Girl Picture of Health Since Taking Tanlac—Mother Has Gained Fourteen Pounds

"I wish I could see every sick person in Milwaukee and tell them what a wonderful medicine I know Tanlac to be" said Mrs. Cora Fields, 83 Nineteenth St., Milwaukee.

"I never knew anything to equal Tanlac. It is as good for children as it is for grown folds. I gave it to our little eleven year old daughter, Margarette, when she was so frail and puny we were afraid we might lose her. It seemed to be just made for her and built her up until she is as robust and healthy as any mother could wish her child to be. She is the picture of health, right now, with rosy cheeks and bright eyes and it was nothing but this grand Tanlac that did it.

"It was just as remarkable in my own case. I had stomach trouble in a bad form and was so run down I could hardly drag myself around. I felt so miserable I thought I would have to take to my bed and stay there. Tanlac soon had me feeling like a different person. It gave me a splendid appetite and I am never bothered with indigestion. I sleep eight or nine hours a night and wake up as happy as a girl.

"I also gained fourteen pounds in weight and no wweigh just what a woman my height ought to weigh. Tanlac was certainly a blessing to our home and I just feel like it would be a sin for me not to speak out and tell people what I know this medicine can do for them."

Tanlac is sold by the Luckey Pharmacy.—Adv.

JOY BROUGHT INTO HOME

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Restoring Mrs. Benz to Health

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We have had six children die almost at birth. From one hour to nineteen days is all they have lived. As I was going to have another, I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth, for this baby is now four months old and a healthier baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says, 'That is a very healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show this letter."—Mrs. C. W. BENZ, 131 3rd Ave., Altoona, Pa.

No woman can realize the joy and happiness this healthy babe brought into the home of Mrs. Benz, unless they have had a like experience.

Every woman who suffers from any ailments peculiar to her sex, as indicated by backaches, headaches, bearing-down pains, irregularities, nervousness and "the blues" should not rest until they have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

WOULD UNITE SCHOOL BODIES

Sen. Skogmo Introduces Consolidated Educational Bill

By FRED L. HOLMES

Reorganization of educational boards of the state is proposed in a bill offered in the upper house on Tuesday by Sen. George B. Skogmo. The bill has been worked out by leading educators in the state and there are many members of the legislature who believe the bill will pass. His bill provides for consolidation of all educational boards and places the state superintendent in an honored position in the reorganization plan.

"The bill was prepared after consultation with educators from all sections of the state," said Sen. Skogmo. "It will save money, but more than that, it will provide for a harmonious and efficient administration of the state schools."

"The bill wipes out the present state board of education and the state board of vocational education and creates in their stead a new state board of education made upon an entirely different basis from that of the present state board of education. On the new board there will be no representatives of the educational institutions as at present. The governor, will not be on the new board. It will be made up of representatives of all the leading elements in the community. It will be a board of seven members, of which one shall be a representative farmer, one shall be a representative of merchants, manufacturers, or other business men, and one shall be a representative employe not having employing or discharging power. At least one member of the board shall be a woman. Two additional members are to be appointed without reference to their occupations. This makes a lay board, and provides for the cooperation of industry labor, and farmers, with trained educators on the new board. The state superintendent of schools will still have his great opportunities of leadership, through his membership on the state board of education itself, the state board of normal regents, the state board of university regents, the Stout Institute board, the Mining School Board, and the Free Library commission. He will also be the chairman ex-officio of the state board of examiners of Teachers' licenses, and will be charged with the supervision and execution of the duties of said board."

MILK

Time is Health Time

HEALTHY, happy children are a joy forever.

Everyone loves romping, healthful youngsters. They bring happiness to the hearts of mothers; they ensure our nation's continued greatness.

Mothers will keep their children healthy in body, alert in mind, by using milk as the first and most important food in the family diet. Use milk first.

MILK—the Protective Food

Milk adds to the disease-resisting power of the human family. Science has fixed milk as the one incomparable food without which infant mortality and dietary diseases get beyond medical control.

In hours of health, protect your children by feeding them liberal quantities of milk.

The Milk Way is the Health Way

Milk is a childhood necessity for it contains all of the energy essentials necessary to life, health and growth. Milk is a protective food for adults renewing and re-energizing both body and brain. Dr. E. V. McCollum says, "at least a quart of milk per day is the correct allowance for each child."

The U. S. Government says: "Milk, in a manner which no other food can exactly duplicate, preserves the health of the growing generation."

RECIPES FOR A DAY.

Bread Pudding—One quar milk scalded and cooled, two eggs, two cups dry bread crumbs, one-quarter teaspoon salt, two-thirds cup sugar, one teaspoon flavoring. Soak bread in milk for one-half hour; beat together eggs, salt, sugar and flavoring; add this to the bread and milk and pour into a buttered baking dish and bake one hour in a moderate oven.

Lemon Sauce—Mix one-half cup sugar, one tablespoon cornstarch, one-half teaspoon lemon extract or grated rind and juice of one-half lemon, one tablespoon butter and one cup of boiling water; cook three minutes.

Lettuce Salad—Thoroughly wash and chill lettuce and just before serving marinate with French dressing. Measure six tablespoons of olive oil and two tablespoons of vinegar. Mix one and one-half teaspoons salt, one-quarter teaspoon cayenne, pepper dry. Beat into these slowly the oil and gradually the vinegar. This should be thick and creamy, the ail being entirely emulsified.

BREAKFAST SUGGESTIONS.

Corn Griddle Cakes—One can corn, two tablespoons cream, salt and pepper, two eggs, two tablespoons flour. Mix ingredients, adding whites of eggs, beaten stiff, last. Drop by spoonfuls on a heated and buttered griddle.

Ham and Toast—Allow one beaten egg to each cupful of chopped ham. Put a little butter in a pan, add the ham and beat thoroughly. Stir the beaten egg in lightly; get it very hot, but do not harden the egg. Season and serve on slices of toast.

To Make Good Coffee—Mix one fresh egg well through six tablespoons coffee. Put this in coffee pot, adding about eight cups of boiling water. Let sit on hot stove, without boiling, for about 15 minutes.

The next day three tablespoons can be added to the grounds of the first day's coffee, and adding the same amount of water.

This makes delicious coffee, and is always good when heated without boiling, and as eggs are now cheap, one egg does not cost much, seeing how many cups of coffee is made with one egg.

TRY THESE.

Billy Wiskers

By Frances Montgomery

At Violet's news, Billy kicked up his heels, twisted his body around and went on like mad.

"Why! what is the matter, Billy? You act as if you were crazy. Don't you want to be driven by any one but me? Is that what you are trying to make me understand?"

The knowing goat bobbed his head up and down to tell her that she had guessed right.

"But you see, Billy, I can't drive before all these people in a big ring where there are lots of other goat carts. How would you like it if I had a nice white boy, Farmer Woodward's son, drive you?"

To this suggestion Billy made no fuss. "I suppose he is prejudiced against colored boys," thought Violet to herself, but out loud she said, "Billy, arent' you ashamed of yourself to make such a fuss against a nice little colored boy? For my part, I would prefer one to a white boy, for I think, as a rule, they are kinder to animals."

"Maybe they are," thought Billy, "but when they are dressed up in their jockey suits they look so much like monkeys (which I detest) that I simply can't stand them, and I know if one of them drove me I should run away, upset the cart, and do all sorts of mischief."

"Come on, Shep, let's go and see the men build the new chicken house where they are going to shut up the fowls they intend to fatten for the fair. As for the piggies, I don't see how they can put on another pound of flesh and not have their hides burst, for they are already so fat they can scarcely walk, and when they lie down they grunt as if it hurt them."

As they were walking across the barnyard, Shep spied something small and dark running ahead of him, and he immediately gave chase. Through the yard they went, then into the clover field and still farther, Violet could see them going until they reached the plowed field beyond, and then she saw them stop suddenly while Shep turned and came running back, carrying something in his mouth.

"What can it be?" thought Violet as she sat on the top rail of the fence, where she had climbed to get a better view. "Oh, my! It looks like a rat. What is he bringing it back here for?" But no, when he got nearer she could see that it had white and brown stripes. "Shep, what in the world have you caught?" and she climbed down from the fence to take it from him, when she saw that it was a baby wild rabbit that he was carrying by the neck, just as cats carry their kittens. Away she ran to find John to ask him to make a pen for it, while she held it huddled close to her neck to keep it warm, and also, that it might not feel frightened, for these little rabbits are very timid.

On her way to find John she met Peter, one of the hird men who had been plowing, and he called Violet to come and see what he had in his hat. "It is something you have been wishing for," he said as he came within speaking distance.

(Tomorrow you will find out what Peter had in his hat.)

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I live in St. Louis and am visiting my sister indefinitely, as my husband is in New York on a business trip. Our father is a minister and we are of an old, respected, educated family, but my sister is a terrible puzzle to me. Father tried to influence her not to marry whom she did, a young fellow far beneath her, no education or family. She is artistic and an accomplished musician. I may as well confess it, I am jealous of her ability to take life as she does.

She has been married fifteen years, is thirty-three years old, has six children, the eldest an invalid, does all her own work, finds time to be active in church and social circles, and still has perfect health and still looks like a young girl. Her husband is poor.

I married according to fathers wishes, a well-to-do business man, have everything financially, but I have miserable health and no children. I never heard sister complain except once. The other day she called me into her bedroom, put her arms around me and said:

"Sister, dear, father was right; I shouldn't have married. I don't know why, but he never makes over me or kisses me. He has compelled me to live my life alone until I have accepted the attentions of an older man. I love him, but I intend to stay with my husband and be sweet and good to my little children."

How inconsistent! Why is it I have everything and try to do right, but she has nothing, but keeps young and good to look at. Everyone loves her. Her children are perfect dears. Yet she is choosing to be happy on the crumbs of a man's love, who probably doesn't mean what he says to her. Always a smile on her face and wormwood in her heart. In spite of all this I love her. What can I do to break through that happy-go-lucky air of hers and make her think seriously of the unhappiness that is surely in store for her?

A TROUBLED SISTER.

Your sister is evidently a person well able to manage her own affairs. If more trouble is in store for her, she will realize the truth soon enough and nothing will be gained by warning her. You can see that she is not entirely unhappy, because she tries so hard to bring conditions of love and happiness to her. By hard work and cheerfulness she draws a curtain on her trouble and keeps before her the better things in her life.

Do not envy her; imitate her. You can do much with your own life to make it more beautiful, if you fight down poor health. Many women who are ill find that in an emergency they are blessed with endurance far beyond anything they dreamed of. They believe themselves to be incapable of work, and therefore make little effort to be about doing useful things. You can help your sister a great deal by assisting with the children.

SWEAR OFF TOBACCO

"No-To-Bac" has helped thousands to break the costly, nerve-shattering tobacco habit. Whenever you have a longing for a cigarette, cigar, pipe, or for a chew, just place a harmless No-To-Bac tablet in your mouth instead, to help relieve that awful desire. Shortly the habit may be completely broken, and you are better off mentally, physically, financially. It's so easy, so simple. Get a box of No-To-Bac and if it doesn't release you from all craving for tobacco in any form, your druggist will refund your money without question.—Adv.

Sectional Winners Are Decided for All-State Basketball Tourney

STATE BASKET CONTEST HERE MARCH 24-26

Winners of Normal Meets Will Compete for Title

By L. H. PETERMAN

Plans are completed for the biggest state basketball tournament ever held in Wisconsin which will be held in the University Armory March 24 and 26, it was announced at the gymnasium today. With the sectional winners finally declared, nothing now remains but to line up the teams, arrange accommodations, and get the play going.

Some of the fastest games ever seen in Wisconsin are promised the fans when these prep teams clash. The strong Superior Central High team, last year's winner, by a lopsided victory over the Ashland High team, is counted on for the stiffest opposition again. Madison High is also going great guns of late, while the teams representing Appleton, Racine, LaCrosse, and Rhinelander may be counted upon to knock several aspirations into the discard before they are through.

Games will be played afternoons and evenings, the finals to be run off Friday night.

Following is the way the sectional winners came through: Appleton took the fast Neenah team into camp by a 25 to 8 score in the final game of the Appleton tournament. Fond du Lac was third by reason of a victory over Shawano, 15 to 10. La Crosse defeated Prairie du Chien for the championship 36 to 7 in the last game there.

Superior Central, after nearly losing to Hawkins, took a brace and mashed through all opposition over the Nelson Dewey team, and finally beat Ashland High, seemingly sure winners by the astonishing score of 7 to 7. The Superior team is reported to be faster and stronger than the outfit that was here last year.

Rhinelander took first honors in the Stevens Point tournament by defeating Wautoma High, 11 to 10 in a hard game.

Platteville won the Platteville playoff by winning over Monticello Highs, in a fast game.

Menomonie Highs will take part in their second tourney by right of victory over Spring Valley the latter being lopsided, 57 to 10. The five star, Setter, well remembered here last year, has scored 167 points for his team this year, which won 14 straight games, including one over the Minneapolis Central champs of the Twin Cities. Menomonie will bear watching in the tournament.

The Milwaukee meet, Racine first honors by beating Wauwatosa 17 to 13. West Bend by beating Whitewater, was third.

Elmwood won the River Falls tourney easily.

Nicholls defeated Chippewa Falls for honors in the Eau Claire tourney, 17 to 9, while Granton took third by a 10 to 8 win over Mondovi.

Willard Duncan is general chairman of arrangements. Assisting him as chairman of committees are: Lathrop Follett, programs; Dexter Brown, entertainment; Carson Lyman, advertising.

The team winning first place will receive a cup and gold watch fobs; while the winners of second and third places will be awarded cups and silver watch fobs. Consolation prizes will be presented to the losing teams.

The visiting men will be entertained at fraternity houses during their stay in the city. They will be shown around the campus and given an opportunity to acquaint themselves with university environment. Smokers, dinners, and theater parties are among the functions planned to make the visitors' stay more pleasant. However, the big event on the line of entertainment comes on Saturday night when the "W" club will give a banquet in honor of the visitors at the Y. M. C. A. At that time the various trophies will be awarded to the teams and this year's varsity basketball men will receive their letters. Doctor Meanwell and Mr. Chamberlain, state president of the W. I. A. A., will speak at the banquet.

Diamond Dope

PASADENA, Calif.—The sun came out yesterday—the regular advertised California article—and knocked the Cubs out of bed early. After two days of rain the regular park was too much of a lake and they went to Brookside, where they had a grass outfield. The boys were itching to go—the weather was ideal—and they tore into it. The regular training stunts were performed; but there was the old sip. Sunshine is a wonderful thing.

* * *

WAXAHACHIE, Tex.—Mr. Comiskey's White Sox looked like quite a ball club yesterday. Some may lay it to the excellent sunshine, but it is our humble opinion that the appearance in uniform of Ernie Johnson, Eddie Mulligan and Eddie Murphy gave the squad its improved appearance. They whooped things up every minute they were at work and when the natives went home tonight to their supper they admitted they had seen the best looking baseball playing that has been seen around these parts in many a day.

DALLAS, Tex.—Wayne Middleton, a collegian from Abilene, Tex., has joined the Cleveland camp here for a tryout. He is attending Simmons college and will not be able to report for regular duty till June.

SHREVEPORT, La.—Bob Meusel, Yanks utility man, was suspended here yesterday by Col. T. L. Huston for failure to report.

* * *

ORANGE, Tex.—Out of the seven games that have been played between the Cards and the Macks' first team here, the latter have won five. The eighth game will be played today.

BOGALUSA, La.—Marty McManus, Browns' recruit outfielder, has had to attend the hospital at Nashville with a lame arm. The injury was first sustained pitching last season.

Mitchell Denies Rocky Can Wallop

MILWAUKEE — Ritchie Mitchell is sore about the alleged statement by him in which he claims that Rocky Kansas can hit harder than Benny Leonard. Ritch says that no such any was ever said by him, and furthermore in a letter to the sporting editor of the Sentinel he makes clear his stand regarding the Kansas-Mitchell abilities, records, and incidentally the future. Here it is:

"Sporting Editor, The Sentinel.

Dear Sir—I hope the near future holds for me another Kansas match, at which time I sincerely believe that I can make the margin of victory large enough so that even the blind may see it.

"To compare Kansas with Leonard is a rank injustice to the champion and I feel free to predict, knowing them as I do that the Buffalo boy would not last ten rounds, although he and his handlers are sure of victory."

Bushey Business Boys Bump 30 Opponents

APPLETON, Wis.—The Bushey Business college basketeers won their thirtieth game of the season Thursday evening when they defeated the Clintonville A. C. at Clintonville, 73 to 17. The past season has been a very successful one for the Bushey five. Many of the best teams in Wisconsin and Michigan were met and defeated.

CHAMP WILSON 7 TO 5 CHOICE TO BEAT O'DOWD

Middle King Meets His Hardest Foe in New York Ring

NEW YORK—Odds of 7 to 5 are offered by early bettors that Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, will defeat Mike O'Dowd, former champion, when they meet in Madison Square Garden Thursday night.

Did Johnny Wilson win the middleweight title from Mike O'Dowd on May 6, 1920, at Boston by superior work in the ring, or was the St. Paul scrapper "robbed," as he charged shortly after the decision curtain fell, blotting out his claim to the championship?

These questions should be answered by midnight on Thursday, when the two topnotchers in the middleweight section clash in a return match at Madison Square Garden, New York. In addition to the title there is a mere matter of $60,000 involved.

There is no question that last May's decision battle was an awful dose for O'Dowd and his friends to swallow. And the bitter taste of that dose remains. While the St. Paul scrapper, when he saw his crown sitting upon the battered brow of Wilson showed his sportsmanship by rushing across the ring, and, congratulating his conqueror, he wasn't long out of the building before he shouted loud and long that he had been "robbed". There never was any proof of this, and the only incident that might make it look plausible was the fact that Wilson was boxing among his friends and in his own home town.

Nine Games on Milton Trip; Play Varsity

MILTON, Wis.—With last years's nine practically intact, prospects for a successful baseball season at Milton college are unusually bright. The men have been working out in the gymnasium for several weeks under the direction of "Clem" Crumb, old-time Milton athlete, who is making his debut this year as head coach for the Brown and Blue.

The following schedule of nine games has been announced by Manager H. P. Kakuske:

April 8—University of Wisconsin at Madison.
April 19—Whitewater Normal at Whitewater.
April 23—Northwestern college at Watertown.

BADGERS HAVE CHANCE IN BIG TEN TANK MEET

Northwestern and Chicago Will Fight For First Place

Although the Wisconsin swimming team has suffered consecutive defeats by Illinois, Northwestern, and Chicago, the Badger squad has an excellent chance of gaining a second or third place in the conference swimming meet at Patten pool, University of Northwestern, on Thursday and Friday, March 17-18. The preliminary races will be held Thursday, and all swimmers who weather the time trials will enter the final swims Friday night.

The three teams which have defeated Wisconsin are the strongest in the Big Ten, and with the the exception of Chicago, they were forced to accept indecisive victories over the Badger. Illinois won the first meet of the season by a 35 to 33 score, and Northwestern earned a 37 to 31 win by capturing the last event of the meet. In the swim against Chicago the Maroons won easily 46 to 22 while Edward Blinks, Maroon sophomore star, was breaking the national intercollegiate record by one second in the 220 yard swim and smashing the conference 100 yard record in 56 4-5 seconds.

Michigan will enter a duo of long distance swimmers and Iowa has a pair of good divers, but with the exception of a few scattered points which will be won by these teams and possibly Minnesota, the majority of the scores will be divided between Chicago, Northwestern, Illinois, and Wisconsin. The Badgers are strong in the dives, in which event Collins and Captain John Koch won first and third places against Chicago. Bach pushed the record-breaking Blinks in the 40-yard and the 100-yard dashes, and Peterson defeated Jenkins of Chicago in the 200-yard breast stroke.

Chicago will depend upon Captain Yegge in the 150-yard back stroke, Blinks in the dashes, and Gordon in the plunge for most of the Maroon counters. Against Wisconsin, Gordon plunged 60 yards in 21 4-5 seconds. He holds the conference record.

Northwestern, 1920 Big Ten champion, has Paver and Hayford in the short events, and Dickson in the plunge. Paver and Hayford were members of last year's championship team and this season defeated Chicago by one point in a meet which was decided by the relay.

"Chicago and Northwestern will fight it out to the first two places at Evanston," said Coach Joseph C. Steinauer on Monday afternoon. "Blinks of Chicago seems unbeatable and without doubt he is the best dash man in the Big Ten. Although Northwestern beat Chicago in the dual meet, some of the weaker squads will pick up points in the conference meet and enable the Maroons to slide by with a victory.

"Wisconsin is assured of several second and third places and perhaps a first in the 200-yard breast stroke and these points will be enough to land the Badgers in the first division.

Old Zbyszko Spills Dope; Pins Stecher

NEW YORK—Stanislaus Zbyszko of Poland threw Joe Stecher, former world's catch as catch can wrestling champion, here Monday night in two hours sixteen minutes ten seconds with a crotch hold and wrist lock.

Zbyszko weighed 225 pounds and Stecher 206.

The 40 year old veteran exhibited a perfect defense against Stecher's dangerous body scissors. He appeared to be in danger of defeat by such a hold which had lasted four minutes, when he squirmed about and succeeded in raising himself upright, at the same time obtaining a crotch hold. Zybszko then threw Stecher to the floor and pinned him with a wrist lock only ten second after freeing himself from the westerner's grip.

He broke from two other body scissors by sheer strength with his arm and elbow and also restoring to the toe hold. Stecher kept trying with his favorite hold, but perfected it only three times, one hold lasting two minutes and ten seconds and another one minute and forty-five seconds.

Stecher was the aggressor for the first hour and a half, Zybszko getting behind his opponent only twice. The veterans marvelous strength, however, succeeded in wearing down Stecher.

All Over! Iowa Ends by Trimming Purple

IOWA CITY, Ia.—Iowa defeated Northwestern tonight, 33 to 17. The Hawkeyes led from start to finish, despit the Purple's occasional spurts. The first half ended, Iowa 16, Northwestern 12. The Iowans ran away in the second section. Capt. Kaufman, playing his last game for Iowa, starred. Lineup:

Russian Sammy is Still Winning Chess

CHICAGO—Samuel Rzeschewski, the 9 year old chess marvel of two continents, played sixteen picked Chicago experts simultaneously at Sinai Social center Monday night, and passed one of his most difficult exhibition sessions in months. Previous to last night Sammy had lost only three games in his 300.

Sammy played with spirit, at one time bringing a delighted outburst from the gallery of 250 interest chess watchers by a trick move against Samuel Greenblum.

Ray Unable to Defend Title at A. A. U. Meet

CHICAGO — Jois Ray, national one-mile and 1,000-yard champion, has informed Amateur Athletic Union officials that he will not be able to defend his title in the national championship meet Saturday night at the Twenty-second Regiment Armory.

The tendon which he strained in a race in Chicago a fortnight ago was merely a return of the leg trouble he picked up at the Olympic games in Antwerp last summer.

GREYJACK AND GANNON ARRIVE FOR BIG MATCH

Trainor in Perfect Shape After Hard Training at U. W. Quarters

With the principals arriving in the city today, all is in readiness for the program of clout at Turner hall tonight. Both the boys appearing in the windup, Greyjack and Gannon, weigh in at Ahaly's pool rooms this afternoon. They look in the best of trim, and as little fellows should show the crowd tonight some real speed.

Eddie Trainor has been seen about the university gym almost every day for the past two weeks, and his supporters need not fear for the little battler's condition. Eddie keeps fit by sparring with the varsity boys and with their coach, Eddie Borgelt. Just why Eddie's first opponent withdrew is uncertain, but report has it that he felt not in good enough trim to meet the local mauler as yet. "Red" Morrell, who substitutes for Trainor's opponent, is reputed to be a tough bird and well able to wage a good scrap afainst the in-and-out tactics of Trainor.

Judging from the big crowds that flocked to see the Moha-Rinderle affair two weeks ago, fans that have to paste boards as yet better plan on going early to avoid the narrow passageway that features Turner hall when the crowd piles in.

The next show for Madison will probably be put on in the Monona park pavilion, according to a statement of Jack Boyd. With warmer weather coming on and the increasing crowds, it will no longer be comfortable in the winter location.

WARM WEATHER TO RETURN IN 2 DAYS

Warm weather and sunshine within two days, is the prediction of E. R. Miller of the U. S. Weather bureau in North hall.

"A current of cold air from Canada struck a current of warm air, here," said Mr. Miller. "The warm air made the rain, and the cold air underneath it turned it into sleet. We shall probably have rain all today and tonight, but tomorrow it ought to clear up and be warmer."

Goloshes and fur coats then may be safely stowed in the far end of your closet. Winter, it seems, is over!

CABINET MEMBERS AREN'T ALWAYS SERIOUS, YOU'LL AGREE

Left to right, seated, are Secretary of War Weeks, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Secretary of State Hughes, Vice President Coolidge and Secretary of the Navy Denby. Standing are Secretary of Interior Fall, Postmaster General Hays, Attorney General Daugherty, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, Secretary of Commerce Hoover and Secretary of Labor Davis.

Most of the photos of President Harding's cabinet members, individually and collectively, show them in pretty serious moods. But there are moments when they lay aside their reserve, as the photo above shows. They are making the best of the delay while a small army of photographers and movie operators "get set" to photograph Harding and his official family at their first session. President Harding, carrying out his announced plan, has asked Vice President Coolidge to attend.

DIPHTHERIA IS OFTEN FATAL

Disease Killed One Person Per Day in State Last Year

Of all the deaths of children 3 and 4 years of age, more than one-seventh are caused by diphtheria. In Wisconsin last year diphtheria killed one person per day. The year's mortality from this serious disease was 13.9 for every 100,000 people, and was the highest since 1910. In January this year 43 deaths were from diphtheria.

Diphtheria deaths and death rates per 100,000 population for 11 years were as follows:

Year	Deaths	Death Rate
1910	432	18.5
1911	332	13.6
1912	300	12.5
1913	300	12.4
1914	323	13.2
1915	212	8.6
1916	229	9.2
1917	350	13.8
1918	272	10.7
1919	293	11.5
1920	365	13.9

Diphtheria is preventable, and when properly treated with antitoxin is curable. It occurs most often in children and often resembles a sore throat or tonsilitis.

A bulletin dealing with the prevention and control of diphtheria will be mailed free to any Wisconsin resident upon receipt of a postcard request to the state board of health.

When promptly treated with antitoxin, diphtheria is one of the least dangerous diseases. If used on the first or second day of the illness, 98 out of every 100 children recover.

CALLAHAN PLEDGES ECONOMY IF NAMED STATE SCHOOL HEAD

Also Promises to Reduce Number of State School Inspectors

MILWAUKEE — United cooperation with people and teachers in raising the standards of Wisconsin's schools; and economical administration of the state office; a better organization of the inspectional force and a reduction in number; more attention to rural education, and cooperation with every educational agency working for the improvement of the schools were the high spots of an address by John Callahan, candidate for state superintendent of schools, to those interested in his campaign, at the Hotel Wisconsin Monday afternoon.

Mr. Callahan repeated to the audience his pledges to the people of the state announcing his candidacy, and outlined in detail what these meant. He pledged active cooperation in bettering the school situation and raising our rank among the states by directing particular attention to the rural schools; by a more stimulating and helpful supervision of the state; by an economical administration of the schools without exceeding his legislative appropriations, or asking emergency appropriations or deficiency appropriations. He pledged himself to keep down the number of inspectors in the state department by cooperating with all the educational institutions and forces of the state.

Mr. Callahan said: "I propose not only a reduction in the absolute number of inspectors, but the shifting of inspectors from the well supervised parts of the school system to the neglected part of the school system, namely the rural schools."

Baseball Club to Be Formed at Stoughton

Fans Will Meet at Library Wednesday Night — Mrs. O. S. Rugstad Goes to Minneapolis Meeting

STOUGHTON—Every one interested in baseball is requested to meet at the library lecture room on Wednesday evening to discuss the organization of a local baseball club.

Holstein Club Meets.

The Holstein club met Saturday afternoon to discuss matters of interest on the Holstein-Fresian subject. The Holstein-Fresian cow was developed as a wonderful milker in the provinces of Schleswig-Holstein, taken from Denmark in punishment for her assisting Napoleon the First. Denmark has back what occupied territory there is of Danish men. So decided after the world war. This may not explain very much with relation to Holstein cows, except as to origin. The Holsteins gave 24 quarts of blue milk, when a Jersey gave 5 quarts of cream. However, through interbreeding the Holsteins also give cream, in proportional quantities. Another meeting will be held Saturday afternoon. M. M. J. Vea, an officer of the Holstein club, said last evening that Madison had the biggest Holstein club in the state. Matters discussed at the club were sales of registered Holsteins in the spring and fall and exhibits of the breed at the state fair. All the clubs are to form a Dane county association.

Lutheran Missionary Federation.

Mrs. O. S. Reigstad, wife of the Christ Lutheran pastor, went to Minneapolis last evening, to attend a meeting of the Lutheran Missionary Federation of which she was made president a year ago. The office of president is an arduous one. Some of the high school girls have assisted in preparing letters connected with the work, donating their time.

Christ Church Kvindeforening.

The Kvindeforening of the Christ Lutheran church, E. Main st., will be entertained Wednesday by Mrs. O. O. Burrull, Mrs. John Burrull, Mrs. Joran Anderson, Mrs. Morris Halverson, Mrs. Ingvald Iverson, Mrs. Archie Lormer, Mrs. Edwin Olson and Mrs. Ragnild Thorson.

Successful Bazaar.

The young people of the East Side Lutheran church had a successful bazaar and supper at the church parlors Saturday afternoon, realizing the sum of $266. Hard times do not seem to affect the supporters of that church.

Implements Marked Down.

Stoughton farm implement dealers received word from the factories yesterday to begin marking down the price from 10 to 15 per cent on the charges of last week. Farmers are still buying what they need, though tobacco has been slow in selling.

Young Man Given Shower.

William Asperheim was given a shower last evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Asperheim, in Rutland, and many neighbors came. He will be married shortly. Many good things were brought for a feast and there were also articles contributed towards housekeeping.

Mrs. Severt Sveom and Mrs. O. P. Lysager went to Waukesha yesterday for a season at the baths.

Frank Gardner of Madison was a Stoughton caller yesterday.

The American Legion.

Otis Sampson post, American Legion, meets at the G. A. R. rooms, city hall, on Thursday evening. Thomas Rippchen, assistant cashier of the Citizens' National bank, is the commander.

Mrs. Nelson Given Surprise.

A number of ladies gathered yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. A. Nelson, Harrison st., and gave her a surprise party on her birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson moved into town from the farm some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Linderud Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Einar Linderud entertained Saturday evening at their south side home and the time was passed in playing progressive 500. The first prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. Almer Kiel and the consolation went to Guy Siggelko.

The Hospital.

A son was born yesterday at the Stoughton surgical hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Sandsmark and a son to Mr. and Mrs. Antone Hanson.

Celebrates Birthday.

Mrs. Lester Eberlee gave a birthday party Sunday evening to her husband, whose birthday anniversary came on that date. Mr. and Mrs. Eberlee reside on Manila st.

Marketing Co. Meets.

The directors of the Stoughton Marketing Co. held a meeting yesterday to transact business in connection with the local co-operative milk plant. No special business was accomplished, excepting to act upon the resignation of the president, who was also a member of the board of directors. Paul Paulson, R. F. D. 4, was made a director to fill vacancy. John Hogie is acting as president.

Masonic Fraternity.

There will be work this evening at a meeting of the Masonic fraternity. The lodge has been making great progress the past two years.

Personal and Otherwise.

Mrs. Carl Arkright, 400 E. South st., is recovering from a serious illness with pneumonia.

Mrs. Nick Nordahl came down from Madison yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. O. O. Burred, E. Main st.

H. W. Scott, representative of Rose & Wobbe, the big tobacco company of New York, went to Cottage Grove yesterday on leaf business.

Mrs. E. Montague, who was taken to the local hospital after breaking her hip, is failing and not expected to long survive. Mrs Montague is 6 years old and the injury caused a severe shock to her system, from which she did not rally.

Mrs. Edwin Amundson came home from the South Madison sanitarium Saturday evening. She has been spending several weeks at the institution.

Oscar Forton, the clothier, went to Milwaukee yesterday.

Mrs. Fred J. Mattingly has accepted a position with the Melant-Johnson Co. at the Big Daylight store in connection with the millinery and ready-to-wear department. Mrs. Mattingly has been in charge of the Hat Shop on E. Main st., for Mrs. MacClanahan, who is spending the winter in California.

Miss Belle Sundbey is home from Milwaukee for a couple of days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sundbey, east side. Miss Sundbey is studying to become a professional nurse.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Owen Skavlem in Janesville. The mother is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Skavlem of Stoughton.

Stoughton Rebekahs meet at the Odd Fellow hall Friday night.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Lemon, north of Stoughton, is recovering from a serious attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cushman were entertained at Fort Atkinson Sunday.

Samuel Johanson went to Reeseville yesterday to be employed by the Stoughton Construction & Lumber Co. in building a new high school.

Frank Richards went to Milwaukee last evening on livestock business. He is a member of the firm of Richards & Davenport.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stensaas and son have returned from a visit at Morrisonville.

Miss Marie Fox of Loyden has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Judd McCarthy, S. Madison st.

As to Postmasters.

According to information from Florida, where R. B. McComb and family have been spending the winter months, President Harding declared at St. Augustine that one of his first acts as president would be to rescind the order of President Wilson placing all postmasters under the civil service. Mr. Harding will insist that merit should control in the appointment of postmasters, but he does not believe in a democrat, who has been placed in the [illegible] [illegible]

VICE DISTRICTS DISAPPEARING

Campaign Against Crime in Wisconsin Cities Proves Successful

Evidence that Wisconsin cities have swung into line against further tolerance of commercialized vice by driving out all such known centers of infection and crime is one of the certain results of the social hygiene campaign, the state bureau of social hygiene asserts. There are no segregated districts left in Wisconsin. Knowleds of operation of houses of prostitution, openly or secretly, today is usually the sign for vigorous police and court action.

In the handling of the social hygiene problem, the state supports the policy of adequate law enforcement to reach all classes of offenders.

Three years ago the segregated district seemed too firmly intrenched in the large cities of the country, and even in a few Wisconsin cities, ever to be dislodged. Today, according to data gathered by the U. S. public health service, the segregated district has few friends. A questionnaire, sent to mayors of all large cities with duplicates for reference to prominent men and women citizens and chiefs of police, brought 554 replies from 212 cities. The answers to the first three questions, which asked substantially whether houses of ill-fame, in and out of segregated districts, should be tolerated were from 80 to 90 per cent in the negative. Those to the fourth and fifth, which asked whether both the woman and the man should be examined medically and placed under surveillance if found infected, were from 72 to 78 per cent in the affirmative. Of the 118 chiefs of police who answered, 89 per cent voted in accord with the public health viewpoint opposed to the existence of commercialized prostitution.

ANNAPOLIS FACULTY TO CONSIDER HAZING

Hazing has reached such a point at Annapolis as to cause the authorities to take drastic measures for its prevention. Several of the "plebes" have sent home complaints to their parents in order to be relieved of these outrages. At the present time the "plebes" are confined in one building, and the upper classes in another. It is expected that a few dismissals will result.

No matter how perfect you make pancakes and waffles—what you like best is the syrup

DID you ever stop to think that what you taste most, and what you like best on your pancakes or hot biscuits or waffles—is the syrup?

In millions of households every morning Karo starts the day off for everybody. It gives just that finishing touch to the crisp brown cakes or the hot biscuits that make the meal a delight.

Karo is equally delicious for cooking, baking, candy making, or preserving. Many cooks use it to stew dried fruit or prunes; or for candied sweet potatoes, brown breads, muffins, coffee cake or puddings.

Do you know why Dextrose is very important food?

You cannot live very long without Dextrose, the great energy food. Most of the food you eat—such as bread, starchy vegetables and all forms of sugar—has to be changed into Dextrose before your system can use it as energy food.

Karo contains a very large percentage of Dextrose—which is the most perfect form in which sugar can come. So Karo may almost be said to be a predigested food. These are scientific facts, supported by the very highest medical and food authorities. Send for the free booklet mentioned below and read all the facts.

For your boys and girls to be strong and sturdy, give them plenty of nourishing Karo—on cakes or bread.

Your Protection

Do not be deceived by some containing syrup that might look like Karo. The name "Karo" is on every can of original Karo—look for it and be assured of full weight cans and highest quality.

BLUE Karo

The standard table syrup. Also for cooking, baking and candy making. Light brown color, delicious flavor—a heavy-bodied syrup.

RED Karo

The Ideal Syrup for every use—for cooking, baking, candy making and preserving. Because of its honey-like appearance many prefer it as a spread for cakes, biscuits, breads.

GREEN Karo

GUN AND BLADE STAGES PLAY

To Present Musical Comedy at Fuller on April 1

"The Maid and the Middy," a successful musical comedy, will be shown at the Fuller April 1, by the Gun and Blade club of the university, a student organization of disabled service men.

Through arrangements made with the management of the Fuller, the expenses have been reduced to a minimum. One-half of the proceeds are to be devoted to the Wisconsin Memorial Union building fund, now being raised to make a fitting tribute in honor of the men who died in the service. The other half will help the club in its efforts to secure a house for its members.

The cast for the play is as follows: "Billy," the middy attached to the Dreadnaught, Dewey Edson; Dawson, a retired farmer, I. O. Hughes; the Count, a Spanish gentleman, John E. Sheldon; Evans, the master of ceremonies, Roman Koelsch; Fritz of the house committee, Boyd Ladd; Valerie Van, Ruth Laylin, '22; Alice, Katherine Keen, '23; Maud, Avis Lobdakey; Phyllis, Mary Tillotson '21; Mrs. Gaily, Olivia Fentress '23; Columbia, Mrs. M. H. Tiege; Bounder, Champion Oarsman, Paul Tobey; and Slimson, Victor Van Steenberg.

The comedy will be directed by Miss Alice Kieth, who graduated from the university in 1916, and who, during the war, was director of War Camp Community Service in the New England Division. The chairmen of the different committees staging the play are Rene W. Pinto, '22, general manager; J. E. Sheldon, business men. William Hartman, stage manager; Adrian Scolten, publicity and advertising; Robert Thomas, in charge of rehearsals; L. W. Petersen in charge of properties; and H. M. Bonsko, ticket sale. Tickets for the musical comedy are now on sale at the Fuller.

APPLE PIE

Burley Agrics Must Have Pie, So A. W. A. Will Provide It

"'Tis a sin
To steal a pin—"

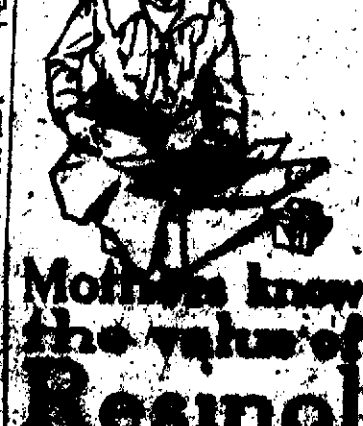

So says the sign at Ag. hall where but yesterday lay a golden pie filled with ambrosial apples and "richly tinct with cinnamon." All day it teased beholders with its insinuating succulence. They read with clenched eyes and gnashing lips that it was, in the language of the hated Hun, "verboten" (i. e., forbidden)—at least until Tuesday.

"Wait until Tusday—then you may have a piece. A. W. A. will serve pie all day," said the sign.

But these men were red-blooded Americans — men who declared "Give me pie or I'll know why!"

So night fell upon the project, and they fell upon the pie. Today nothing but a few crumbs remained where once lay a "perfect pie."

Investigation was started at once. Two burly Agrics were prevailed upon to undertake to ferret out the fugitives. These men have sworn (merely in a legal sense) to bring the offenders to an outraged justice and 1234566N. 6N. 68T90tice, and make them pay 50 cents for the pie. The two know exactly who did the stealing and want the culprits to give themselves up at once. They say that if the lawbreakers do not report soon they will offer a reward to find out who did it. One Agric when interviewed reported that he had strong suspicions of the Ag. hall cockroaches. These animals reach an astonishing size and ferocity in that vicinity, and he thinks a group of them could easily eat a pie.

NO NEW HEARING ON GAS RATES

Milwaukee Company Operated at Loss in Jan. and Feb., Says Rail Board

There will be no rehearing in the Milwaukee gas case by which the railroad commission a month ago increased rates from 10 to 25 per cent. Announcement of this fact was made by the commission Monday.

It was over this case that the commission was interpolated by members of the legislature.

Y. W. NEEDS ONLY $87 TO END DRIVE

Already $4,261 of the annual budget of Y. W. C. A. has been collected as reported by Anta Lyman '22, chairman of the finance committee, at a joint meeting of the advisory board and cabinet yesterday. This money has been collected in alumni, faculty, and student drives, and from the candy sale and bazaar.

TAX PROBLEMS ARE EXPLAINED

Paul Reynolds Says State's Share of Tax Returns Small

How the city, county and state levies property taxes was explained Monday night to some 60 voters of the tenth ward by Paul Reynolds of the Wisconsin tax commission, who talked under the auspices of the League of Women Voters. Mr. Reynolds dealt also with the distribution of taxes, and showed that while the proportion of the tax that goes to the state is comparatively small, $8 on $100, the returns in actual value are large. Out of this tax the university is supported, getting about $1,700,000.

The county gets 13 per cent, 44 per cent is used for local purposes, and the schools get 35 per cent.

No lowering of taxes can be expected at the present time with the increased activities of the government, Mr. Reynolds believes.

Schools Need Support.

The need for adequate support of the schools was dealt with by Supt. Charles S. Meek, who declared that the dominant note in this year's discussion by the school superintendents all over the country is the proposition of getting money to finance the ever growing needs of the schools. He dealt briefly with the urgent need for building schools in Madison. He also laid stress upon the fact that there has been a turnover of more than 40 per cent in the teaching force since he came to the city. The chief reason, he said, was the low salaries paid here.

"I don't mind losing teachers to the big cities like Minneapolis, Duluth, Chicago, and so on, but what hurts my pride is that we are losing them to the smaller towns right in Wisconsin," said Mr. Meek.

Mrs. A. A. Johnson and Mrs. A. W. Watson gave a piano duet and Mrs. Peter Carr sang. Three of the candidates running for the spring elections were present. Ald. Joseph H. Brown declared that his policy on the city council was to place education first, and health second, other enterprises following.

WISCONSIN GETS MUCH SERVICE FROM ITS COMMISSIONS

W. O. Hotchkiss Says State Gets More Service for Dollar Than Corporations

"The state of Wisconsin is getting more brains in its commissions for the dollar than any other large corporation I have met with," said W. O. Hotchkiss, state geologist and director of the state geological survey, before the Kiwanis club. Mr. Hotchkiss described the soil survey, natural history survey and geological survey of the state.

By locating gravel deposits near Elkhorn last year, state geologists saved $4,000 in hauling charges, and $15,000 in material and freight costs on one 4-mile piece of concrete road, he said.

H. H. Hites was elected executive chairman in charge of the district Kiwanis picnic to be held in Madison next summer. Gen. Jesse Forbes and Gen. Charles Littleson command opposing Kiwanians in a 12-weeks membership campaign, the losers to purchase a $25 music memory prize for the Boy Scouts. H. C. Netherwood submitted copies of the bylaws of the club. William Miller, who led the singing, closed the song program with a vocal solo.

Parent-Teachers Meet at Waterloo

WATERLOO—A large number attended the parent-teachers' meeting Friday night. A program was given consisting of games by all, reading by Mrs. Foley, vocal selections by Esther Bauman, a play, "At the Photographer's," by seventh and eighth grades, and an address by Mrs. Carberry of Milwaukee.

Selma Berlin was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, Milwaukee, Tuesday, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Members of the D. A. R. met at the home of Mrs. L. Lewellin Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Fairfax Saunders and daughter of Ironwood, Mich., are visiting at the home of G. K. Seeber.

Miss Erna Quade entertained at a party Saturday night. The evening was spent at games and cards. Those present were Misses Olive Archie, Esther Gottschalk, Gladys Lackey, Dorothy Dollman, Messrs. Lester Heideman, Walter Velth, Arthur Archie, Victor Heideman and Raymond.

Mexican Reports Result in Another Drive Against Issues

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK—Reports dealing with Mexican affairs were responsible for another drive against oil shares at the opening of today's stock market. Mexican petroleum, selling ex-quarterly dividend, promptly added 2¾ points to its recent series of reactions. Other issues of the same class were lower by fractions to a point. Crucible and United Fruit, at declines of 1½ and 2 points, were among the other backward stocks together with Reading and Mercantile Marine preferred.

Leaders were lower in the last hour. Atlantic Gulf, Asphalt, American Woolen, American Sugar and Baldwin recording extreme declines of 2 to 5 points. The close was irregular.

INDEPENDENCE IS IRISH AIM

J. Phillips, Just Back, Says Ireland United in Stand

The majority of the Irish people are determined to have self-government and would not be satisfied with home rule, according to Joseph Phillips, brother of Fred Phillips of this city, and just returned from Ireland.

Phillips, still a British subject, had been prevented by the British from leaving Ireland, having been accused of being a captain of Sinn Feiners. He finally succeeded in making his escape by boarding a ship at Liverpool and working his way over to this country as a stoker. After things have settled down in Ireland, Phillips plans on returning to his native land.

Phillips on Tuesday described a number of atrocities committed by the British, of which he was a witness. He told of seeing two girls, about 22 years old, shot down by the Black and Tan.

A brother of Phillips is now serving a five year term in Ireland for his activities with the Sinn Feiners.

Phillips served with the Canadian army in the war against Germany, and upon returning to this country immediately made preparations to go to Ireland. He went over 18 months ago, before the uprisings. Dublin, Cork and Belfast are some of the principal cities which he visited.

Efforts are being made to arrange a meeting to be addressed by Phillips.

ORDER RECORDS TO BE FILED

Council Requires Various Boards to Present Finance Reports

By HENRY NOLL

By action of the council various branches of the city government operated by boards or commissions must file with City Auditor Bunn copies of the records of their meetings insofar as they relate to financial transactions.

The primary object of this action is to keep the members of the council posted at all times as to the amount of moneys voted by the boards for various purposes and also what is proposed to be expended. Heretofore, when members of the city's legislative body sought information along these lines, the city auditor has been unable to furnish it as no records have been kept in his office.

The council's action pertains to the board of education, industrial board of education, Forest Hill cemetery commission, water board, fire and police board, Madison Park and Pleasure Drive association and board of health. The board of directors of the Madison General Hospital association is not included in the resolution but it has always filed copies of the records of its business sessions with the city auditor.

CLEVELAND, Ohio — The opening of the lake Erie fishing season today found the union fishermen and tug men on strike in protest to wage reductions of 10 to 20 per cent. The tug men demand $165 a month and 3 per cent of the gross and the fishermen $6 a day, the 1920 scale.

BAR FILM THEFTS

SACRAMENTO, Cal.— An assembly bill designed to prevent theft of motion picture scenarios, was favorably reported by the senate judiciary committee. It provides for filing copies of scenarios, stories, lectures and sermons with the secretary of state, to be used as evidence in civil actions to recover damages.

Nelson Postpones Trip to Washington

Postponement of the special session of congress until April 11 has changed the plans of Congressman John M. Nelson regarding the time of departure with his family for Washington. "We may leave in a week or 10 days, but we are somewhat uncertain," he said, Tuesday morning. "We have not yet secured a house, and there are a number of other things to be considered."

Y. W. C. A. WILL FACE DEFICIT

Campaign Starting April 6 to Strive to Reduce Debts

With the new building debt, interest of $8,850 must be paid annually by the Y. W. C. A., which will open a campaign for $50,000 on April 6.

The sum of $20,000 is asked to reduce the debt on the building. Besides this the Y. W. C. A. has an unpaid deficit of $6,600 on its 1920 business.

To meet the next budget, it will be necessary to raise each year about $25,000 more than the total resources of the association can provide. Practically the only profit of the Y. W. C. A. comes from its cafeteria and rooms. The budget estimate is that a profit of $15,183 will be made this year in the cafeteria. The renting of rooms will return a profit of $650. The total profit is expected to be $16,433. The total expense of all activities is given as $18,878. To this deficit is added 10,000 a year for the reduction of the building debt besides the interest on the debt. This makes a total of $21,295 to be raised each year from sources outside the institution. With unpaid accounts and contributions the Y. W. C. A. now needs $49,190.

Slipstickers to Honor St. Pat in Parade Up State State Street and Around Square

Things mechanical, electrical, and chemical, but all hardly practical, are to feature the Engineers' Annual St. Patrick's parade Saturday afternoon. Ingenuity and accumulated constructiveness are given their yearly airing in this moving display up State street and around the square.

The traditional blarney stone is again to be exhumed from its secret vault under the Engineering building; carried in state throughout the parade; and then reverently kissed by every son of St. Pat. Last year's enrollment of engineers included a "daughter" of St. Pat, and as a result the latter process lost much of its formality.

High-top boots, flannel shirts, and clay pipes will be in order for all participants, and it is hoped that each engineer will be further identified by the specially grown moustache. Considerable gathering of data and proportionate calculation has led to the development of an involved empirical formula, the terms of which only the slipstickers are said to understand, which indicates that most growths will be ready by Saturday noon.

In addition to the many floats, at least one of which is to be prepared by each engineering society, will be numerous group attractions. Prizes are offered for the best make-ups and for the best take-offs on other colleges. It is expected that the "left-handed monkey wrench which screwed the Law Shop 'nut' of the bench" and other similar exhibits will be available.

Tractors have been loaned by a local dealer to furnish motive power, and with but one exception, everything will be motorized. The parade will form on Park street near the shop building and will start down State street at 1:30 Saturday afternoon.

Landseeker's Excursion

RIO GRANDE VALLEY LANDS OF SOUTH TEXAS

FRIDAY, MARCH 18TH, 1921

"The Producer's Day is in sight. The rush to the city is just about over. If you could get into a business that would pay you splendid returns on your investment as well as a good return for your time and effort and at the same time permit you to work out-of-doors in God's sunshine and fresh air, would you be willing to investigate?"

We can show you the place and it is the healthiest, cleanest and right-up-to-now place that you will ever find. Let us lay the proposition before you wide open, with no obligation on your part to buy. All we want to know is that you are able to buy. We will show growing crops of early vegetables that will have no competition in the markets for months—oranges and grape-fruit growing and producing returns you would hardly believe possible. The finest soil and climate and ample water for all time to come. You will get a Holiday trip for $50.00 which includes all expenses of railroad fare, Pullman, Hotel and Auto trips to see everything. ($75.00 for man and wife.)

We leave Friday, March 18th, at 4 P. M. from C. M. & St. Paul Depot (West Madison).

Who And Why?

Newspapers State That Mr. Esch Has Been "Rewarded" by the Harding Administration

WE note frequent references in the press to the effect that John J. Esch has been "REWARDED" by the Harding administration.

REWARDED for what? WHO wanted to give him a reward? WHY should he be given a reward?

Were the railroads given something to which they were not entitled under the Esch-Cummins bill? Is it Wall Street that wants Mr. Esch rewarded? Has Mr. Esch conferred a favor on somebody that makes him entitled to receive a reward?

Mr. Esch was the servant of the people in the halls of Congress. The people did not reward Mr. Esch,—they retired him to private life. The people, then, are not asking that Mr. Esch be rewarded.

WHO is asking for a reward for Mr. Esch and WHY are they asking for it?

TO THE WISCONSIN ASSEMBLY

THE Senate has passed the Nye bill by a vote of 22 to 8.

The bill includes hotels in the employment for females coming under the jurisdiction of the industrial commission.

This means that women working in hotels shall not be employed under conditions prejudicial to their "life, health, safety, or welfare." Welfare is defined to include "decency and moral well being."

The industrial commission is the court to which the women may appeal to secure these just and humane conditions.

For eight years the good women of the state have been appealing to the legislature to pass this law. For eight years the hotel association has succeeded in defeating any law to protect the welfare of their female employes.

But such a law applies to manufacturing establishments. It applies to stores of all kinds. It applies to telephone and telegraph companies, street car and railroad companies. Such a law applies to pea canners and tobacco workers.

And such a law applies to restaurants which are in direct competition with hotels.

Now why is it that the hotel association uses its every influence to keep free from a law that applies to every other kind of business in the state employing numbers of women?

Before the Senate Committee the hotelmen protested that they are complying with the requirements as to hours of labor now.

THEN WHAT IS THE TROUBLE?

Go back and read the definition of "welfare."

There are two classes of hotels, the DECENT and the INDECENT.

The decent hotel has nothing to fear from the passage of the Nye bill.

The indecent hotels have reason to fear.

Heretofore the women have not had the vote. But now they have the right to vote, and if they do not get this legislation this year they will be back two years from now.

In the meantime it will be a campaign issue. In such a campaign the hotelmen will have some things to explain.

The women know and the men know why the hotelmen are fighting the Nye bill.

If the fight is continued the country will learn why and then the voters will settle the question at the polls. And they will settle it right.

INDUSTRIAL FEUDALISM

DR. JOHN A. RYAN of the Catholic University of America, discussing the present drive against the labor movement, declared that America is confronted by an industrial feudalism that is "undemocratic, unfair, wasteful and productive of serious class conflict."

He mentioned Gary as typical of the class of employers that constitutes a "menace to industrial peace."

"The most acute evil of our present industrial relations," he said in a formal statement later, "is the fact that the difference of interest between capital and labor is strongly and constantly emphasized while their common interests are almost entirely ignored. One of the most deplorable results of this condition is that labor does not turn out anything like the maximum product of which it is capable. To meet this evil, Judge Gary and those who share his attitude can suggest nothing better than the suppression of adequate collective bargaining, and the reduction of the wage-earning classes to a complete dependence upon their autocratic, even though benevolent, employers. In other words, they believe that the most efficient employment relations is a kind of industrial feudalism.

"This social and industrial policy is out of joint with the democratic spirit of the age, and with the enhanced power and aspirations of the workers. Neither repression nor feudalistic benevolence will ever make the workers more interested in their work."

Voice Of The People

PELTIER ON DOCTORS.

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

Schools of medical practice are many and various, and it is neither democratic nor fair to permit one school to control the practice of other schools. The care of the person is purely a private affair, and does not properly come within the purview of the public health; therefore, the relation between physician and patient being a personal and private one, the individual is entitled to a choice of advisor.

The doctor cannot forget that he is a doctor, and when he becomes health officer he proceeds to doctor the whole community. The function of health officer is, directly a sanitary job, having relation to drainage, sewerage, garbage disposal, to water supply, to the ventilation and the planning of buildings, in a way to make the environment clean and wholesome. But these tasks are no more akin to the practice of medicine and surgery than they are to chiropody or the barber's trade.

The doctor as health officer is at best an amateur and theoretically a sanitarian, his views colored by his medical training, and that causes him to neglect genuine sanitation, doctoring the polluted water supply with chemicals and then turning to meddle with the persons of private citizens, invade homes, control public schools, interfere between private practitioners and patients, and force medical treatment on sick and well.

The health officer keeps a record of death and has it in his power, if he is a doctor, to protect his medical brethren from blame, or any given practice of his sect from condemnation. In this manner death from surgical operations are put down to appendicitis or whatever disease was operated for. Deaths from antitoxin are put down to diphtheria, deaths from vaccination are almost invariably concealed under the title tetanus, meningitis, septicemia or whatever form the blood poisoning takes in given cases. This deception keeps the public in the dark and, therefore, raises the death rate. A doctor in the position of health officer is a state paid agent and lobbyist for his fraternity. When the state has no more right to discriminate between medical systems than it has to show partiality in religions.

I also believe that government medicine, whether of nation, state, or city, is a harsh mechanical laboratory routine, instead of the highly individualized practices of physicians dealing with individual patients, each a problem to be studied and solved by itself.

Vera Gordon

Vera Gordon the mother of "Humoresque," will be seen at the Strand theater Wednesday to Saturday in her latest picture "The Greatest Love."

AT THE MAJESTIC

The Coudy show of 1921 proved to be different in many ways than any of the previous musical shows that have played the Majestic, starting without the usual hurrah opening it goes right into the action of the piece. Mr. Elmer Condy stepped quietly out without a vestige of makeup and mighty quickly proved that he did not need grease paint to win his audience. His droll manner of speech drew many a hearty laugh from the capacity house Sunday night.

Special mention should be made of other members of the cast. Mr. Hines as the friend is possessed of a most pleasing personality, and pleasant voice which he uses to good advantage. Mr. DuFault in the [illegible] is most amusing and later on in the show gives a most remarkable specialty with a violin, which consists of one string which he masters. Miss Murat as the cousin is good to look at and has mastered the art of looking good in really envious gowns. Dan Mahoney as the Irish janitor is a true delineator of the type as one could wish to see and keeps the audience in good humor each and every time he is on the stage.

AT THE ORPHEUM

With a rousing good dancing number, a monologist with several funny statements, a harmonious trio and three other diversions the Orpheum started another good show for the first half of the week. Kavanaugh and Everett accompanied by the Wynn sisters and Paul Humphrey put over as snappy and graceful a dance revue as has been seen here of late. There was not a dull movement or draggy lull in the whole performance. Mr. Humphrey as the accompanist on the piano was competent. The three chums in a vocal outburst that was melodious offered a short period of songs and comedy that took along a movie scenario of carefully planned comedy. George Yeoman and his "helper" Lizzie had lots of fun as editor of the "assassinated press." Black and O'Donnell as the "violinist and the boob" partook of the usual preliminary before getting down to their good [illegible] ding and clogging. Miss Jean Bergan's miniature circus of ponies and stubborn mules was featured by the latter's objection to being ridden by any of the vigorous attendants. The Wilbat trio of tricky boxologists and gymnasts is the initial number of the don't know a word they said, but we believe the situation in Russia is critical. It always is that, we are reliably informed.

Mr. Coolidge said something about the league of nations. It was hot stuff, take it from us, but you'll have to guess what it was.

From information we have gleaned from the cabinet meeting we are prepared to say that Harding will continue to play golf as usual while president. We hope we are betraying no confidence in mentioning this. Also, he will attend the Baptist church and will have grapefruit for breakfast three times a week.

When he wants to go anywhere he will not call a taxicab, but will use one of the White House automobiles.

These policies have already been made public and may be relied upon. As other important matters are revealed in future cabinet meetings we will report them.

On The Side

WHAT MR. HARDING WILL DO

(News brought by Special Carrier Pigeon.)

The cabinet held its first meeting yesterday.

There were present Mr. Harding, Mr. Coolidge, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Hays and several other gentlemen whose names we do not seem to recall on the spur of the moment.

After reading all the newspaper reports carefully, we are able to give the following definite and concise, not to say intelligent, report of the session.

After the members had been introduced all around and had mumbled one another's names so as not to make any embarrassing errors, Mr. Hughes made a report on his attitude toward the war between Panama and Costa Rica. We don't know what it was he said.

Then Mr. Harding said what he would like to do in regard to this war. What he said has not been revealed.

Then there was a general discussion of the situation in Russia. We
